OFFICE OF LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT, } REMARKS-Our quotations refer only to the wholeale prices. For filling small orders a slight advance is always charged. All the specialties of the market will be found in the remarks attached to each article.

Since our last issue, the money market has again been very stringent, which has produced a very unfavorable effect upon all kluds of business. Farmers find it difficult to dispose of their produce for cash. Dealers and manufacturers, instead of extending, have been rerenching their business to suit the scanty facilities af orded to them by the banks, who have been discountng very sparingly. However, prices of provisions, flour, nd hemp, have not only been maintained, but are firmer, and tobacco is activo at advanced rates, and this fact peaks promisingly for the ultimate result of this sea-
